

Helpful Resources for Tenants.

If you are currently renting your dwelling or renting both your mobile home and the land underneath, then the Arizona Residential Landlord Tenant Act applies to you. You can find it here:

https://housing.az.gov/sites/default/files/documents/files/Landlord-Tenant-Act-ADOH-Publication-July-2018_0.pdf

If you own your mobile home and rent the land underneath it, the Mobile Home Act applies to you. You can find it here: https://housing.az.gov/sites/default/files/AZ-Mobile-Home-Parks-Residential-Landlord-Tenant-Act_Aug2019.pdf

If you think that your landlord is violating fair housing, contact the Southwest Fair Housing Council 1-888-624-4611 or at <http://swfhc.com/contact-us>

If you believe your landlord is discriminating against you based on a disability, contact the Arizona Center for Disability Law at 520-327-9547 or at <https://www.azdisabilitylaw.org/contact-us/>

If your landlord has started the eviction process and you need assistance filling out paperwork, there are easy to fill out forms on the Justice Court website: <https://www.jp.pima.gov/Forms/Forms.html#eviction>

If you are looking for help with a housing issue apply online to see if you qualify for SU2J services www.stepuptojustice.org/apply-for-help

Renter Education for Neighborhoods & Tenants

www.stepuptojustice.org